HARRYTUCKER

Gathered up a bunch of snow; Then she looked, as the day was dawning, For some one at whom to throw. Down the street the milkman plonded, Thinking naught of Mary Brown;

As he passed, he simply nodded,
Mary hit him on his crown.
Mary laughed, "Hat hat" she shouted,
As she banged the cottage door;
John, the milkman, had been routed— John, the miliman, has been reduced Seven years then passed or more. Mary stood beside the gatepost. Looking down the street for John; On the porch stood little Mary, By her side stood little John.

She stuck her head through the win-ow.

It was not a rubber window, nor was her head made of iron.

She cast her eyes up the street.

For she saw him going by with another young girl.

And it was such a lovely day for sleigh ride.

When Henry Cohn gets all this snow out of Richmond, we hope he'll get his galafy raised.

For if there was ever a man who has earned the plaudits of the people, it is Mr. Cohn.

All we want him to do is to keep the mud off the sidewalk in front of our palutial residence. salary raised.

If Japan and Russia don't hurry up and do something, we will be forced to sell the sword and gun that we purchased may get a hold of them and de damage to the neighbors' cats.

Our good friend, Binir Meanley, who is such a fine booster for the Bijou Theatre, has taken on a side line, and is now doing lots to push it along.

He handed us one of the Haif Shell cigars the other day, and unfolded his scheme, and as it is a good one, we hope hell push it along to McKee's

If the snow stays much longer, we got to get six pair of boots of six different sizes, and we are, accordingly, open to negotiations from shoe dealers who are willing to offer good terms.

We would also be glad to exchange a wheelbarrow that Santa Claus left at our house, for a sleich. house for a sleigh.

The hunting season having closed here, Claiborne Epps and Frank Anthony are making arrangements to take that hunt-ing trip to South Africa, where there are no game laws.

They expect to bring back with them some elephants and lions and a hippo or two.

If they catch a live giraffe they are going, to give it to Colonel Richardson for the Capitol Square Zoo.

COFFEE AND SOUP. Poor People Get Timely Help From Mr. Wiley.

One hundred and thirty big mugs of coffee, with bread and soup to go with them, were given over the counter Sunday to homeless men at the mission, on day to homeless men at the mission, on Nincteenth and Main Streets. Mr. Wiley, the superintendent, said that no such thing find ever been done before, for the good reason that no such conditions had ever prevailed before. The snow and severe weather came with the usual openings for work either shut down or fill dwith men. He gave all to understand that with better weather work would be possible, and then it would be work or go hungry, as the mission would sternly refuse to help men who were wilfully idle. He also said that while the demand upon the mission had doubled beyond anything in its history, the donations had been unprecedented, and that he was ready-and in position to help with clothing and otherwise women and children. He said that help had come from all creeds and directions, and that managers of the work beyond measure.

He mentioned many of them to the reporter. Two were of special interest; A barket of clothes and some money came from the two boy military companies of Church Hill, and were brought in by Major Charles R. Winfree and Captains Allgon and Edwin Turner. The other was a check for $20.5, given by members of Nineteenth and Main Streets. Mr. Wiley a sheck for $0.55, given by members of the thouse of Delegates, collected and sent in by Hon. S. P. Read, delegate from Mecklenburg county.

There was no cessation in the number of applicants, and all day Mr. Wiley and his workers were busy investigating and relieving the appeals made upon the mission.

BEECHER PREACHED WHILE IN A TRANCE

So Says Rev. Dr. Savage, Who Obtained Information From Beecher's Friend. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—Rev. Dr. Minot., Savage, pastor of the Church of the Messiah, in preaching yesterday on "The Divine Inspiration," said:

"An initimate friend of Dr. Henry Ward Beecher told me one day that Mr. Beecher told me one day that Mr. Beecher told him that it was no uncommon thing for him to preach in a trance. He would rise and begin to speak when there would be a sudden rush of blood to the head, and he would less consciousness; and those were the days when he preached his most wonderful sermons. He would come to himself to find the people absorbed in listening. When some one would ask him what he meant by Messiah, in preaching yesterday on "The saying a special thing, he would have to wait for a report of the sermon to see what it was." BOY WAS RESCUED

BY BRAVE PASTOR ITHACA, N. Y., Feb. 1.-Rev. Wallace

the disease.

house warning persons of the existence of the disease.

The child, now about six years of age, is supposed to have contracted the disease at school. While she is very ill, no immediate danger is apprehended.

Interest in the case has been aroused in some quarters over the fact that Mr. Harrison's will, which was drawn before the birth of the child, provided for the contingency of its birth by bequesting
